Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church

This May, for the first time, thanks to Pope Francis, the Church will celebrate Mary's role as "Mother of the Church" on the Monday after Pentecost. This year it's May 21. Pope Francis added the memorial to the Roman Calendar to encourage growth in "the maternal sense of the Church" and in "genuine Marian piety."

Masses will be offered as follows:

St. James – 1:00 PM

Sacred Heart – 5:15 PM

May 22 -- Free Webinar on Parenting and Pornography

A free one-hour webinar hosted by the Religious Alliance Against Pornography (RAAP) will be offered on May 22 at 5 pm (PST). The webinar will address how to initiate age-appropriate discussion free of fear and shame, how to approach technology, social media and pornography, and ultimately how to create an atmosphere of openness and honesty in your home where you are the go-to person for your kids. For more information and to register go to <http://bit.ly/ParentsKidsandPorn>. Another helpful website on this issue: <https://protectyoungminds.org>. For more information please contact Steve Patton at spatton@scd.org.

Where are you sowing the seeds of God's Word? Why share God's Word? Because you know what it's like to be held securely in your Savior's arms and you love how the Holy Spirit whispers encouragement into your life. You've come to appreciate and depend upon your heavenly Father's strength and love. And you want others to experience all these good gifts of God, too! — Gail March, Growing in Grace.

Career Opportunities — The Diocese of Sacramento has several job openings too numerous to mention in the bulletin. Go to this website for details: <http://bit.ly/scdjobs>. You can also find a link by logging on to our website, "Bulletin Xtra". Scroll down to box entitled "Looking for a Job?"

« A New Wind » Reflections on Today's Readings by Scott Hahn

The giving of the Spirit to the new people of God crowns the mighty acts of the Father in salvation history. The Jewish feast of Pentecost called all devout Jews to Jerusalem to celebrate their birth as God's chosen people in the covenant Law given to Moses at Sinai (see Leviticus 23:15–21; Deuteronomy 16:9–11).

In today's First Reading, the mysteries prefigured in that feast are fulfilled in the pouring out of the Spirit on Mary and the Apostles (see Acts 1:14). The Spirit seals the new law and new covenant brought by Jesus, written not on stone tablets but on the hearts of believers, as the prophets promised (see Jeremiah 31:31–34; 2 Corinthians 3:2–8; Romans 8:2).

The Spirit is revealed as the life-giving breath of the Father, the Wisdom by which He made all things, as we sing in today's Psalm.

In the beginning, the Spirit came as a "mighty wind" sweeping over the face of the earth (see Genesis 1:2). And in the new creation of Pentecost, the Spirit again comes as "a strong, driving wind" to renew the face of the earth.

As God fashioned the first man out of dust and filled him with His Spirit (see Genesis 2:7), in today's Gospel we see the New Adam become a life-giving Spirit, breathing new life into the Apostles (see 1 Corinthians 15:45, 47).

Like a river of living water, for all ages He will pour out His Spirit on His body, the Church, as we hear in today's Epistle (see also John 7:37–39). We receive that Spirit in the sacraments, being made a "new creation" in Baptism (see 2 Corinthians 5:17; Galatians 6:15).

Drinking of the one Spirit in the Eucharist (see 1 Corinthians 10:4), we are the first fruits of a new humanity—fashioned from out of every nation under heaven, with no distinctions of wealth or language or race, a people born of the Spirit.
